

BLACK BIRTH PROJECT VOLUNTEERS

ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW: The Black Birth Project is a nonprofit organization focused on improving reproductive health outcomes for Black people in Canada through community research, advocacy and education. Our organization keeps the principles of reproductive justice at the forefront of our initiatives. We believe in approaching our work with a dual modality of both prevention and intervention in order to have the largest impact on our community.

VOLUNTEER SUMMARY: Volunteers will work with support from the BBP founders to assist with different tasks, operations, events and other needs yet to be identified. Roles and responsibilities will be defined based on volunteer skills, experience and preferences.

Specific duties required at this time include, but are not limited to:

- Social media management
- Blog contribution
- Event coordination
- Grant writing
- Operations/ Administration

QUALIFICATIONS: The Black Birth project is a nonprofit organization focussed on Black reproductive health therefore lived experience as a Black person and/or extensive work with Black communities is an asset

Other qualifications include:

- Ability to maintain confidentiality and privacy of folks
- Understanding of the links between race and sexuality, gender, health, and culture as it pertains to Black folks
- Excellent organizational skills
- Strong communications skills: verbal, written, visual, and public speaking.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team, remaining accountable, and keeping the team up-to-date
- Proven computer skills (MS Excel, PowerPoint, MS Word); graphic design skill

